GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A gossiping letter from Louisville says: "John Madden, who has always followed methods of his own and has always kept his own counsel, is this year following the plan which he has successfully followed for several seasons in his training work. There are always a lot of loafers around a racetrack, 'rail-birds,' who fancy that they are laying up a stock of wisdom from which to draw dollars when the races begin. Now, these fellows, once they get the name of a colt or filly that can do good work, soon make public property of fast trials, and thus ruin many a 'good thing' by helping the bookies to get a line on this good one or that. Madden has circumvented these wise boys very neatly, and not even the boys who exercise his horses and rub them down afterward know the names of half of them. Mr. Madden this year is following the plan he long ago adopted with success, and all that the rubbers, exercise boys and other stable help know about a horse is his number. Madden's orders come in the shape of 'Here, boy, take No. 8 out and wash that mud off him,' or 'Don't give No. 10 but eight quarts of oats today, he's been over-eating himself,' or, in the early morning, 'Let No. 14 have a good stiff quarter and then bring him in and rub that left foreleg of his and bandage it up tight.' By having his horses known by number instead of by name among the stable boys Mr. Madden not only keeps the public from knowing too much of his business, but has a system that works much smoother and better in the way of speedy and frictionless execution of orders given. There's a handsome-looking brown colt in Madden's stable which goes by the name of No. 7, and this fellow is likely to do some pretty clever tricks in the two-year-old division before the season is over. He looks like a Hanover and he is built on fine, racy lines showing a combination both of speed and power.

HORSES AT AUCTION.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 25.—Horses belonging to John J. McCafferty and other owners were sold at auction this afternoon for the following prices:

Backon, to W. H. Laird	$810
Effie Ainslie, to M. Jordan	400
The Winner, to W. H. Laird	310
Kenmore Queen, to C. V. Faut	300

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. Martin has reported to trainer Welch of the Fleischmann stable and has been busily engaged in exercising the horses. He is in excellent condition and says he will be able to ride close to 100 pounds when it becomes necessary. If permitted he will probably carry out his conditional engagement to ride Onomastus in the Tennessee Derby.

Milton Young will have a handsome monument erected over Hanover's grave. It is said that within a year past Young had refused two high offers for Hanover, one of $80,000 from J. B. Haggin and another of $75,000 from W. C. Whitney. Lamplighter will probably now be considered premier stallion at McGrathiana.

Rush and Spirituelle are both reported to have grown and improved in the way that turfmen like, and are taking their early work in satisfactory style at Louisville.

Jockey J. Morgan is on his way east to report to trainer Mosson. He is under engagement to ride for Marcus Daly this year.

Jockeys H. Martin, Bloss and Caywood have arrived in Little Rock, where they will ride during the coming meeting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Secretary Price, who is the presiding steward of the California Jockey Club, will leave for Louisville on April 1 to take charge of the coming meeting here. Col. Clark will be the presiding judge at Louisville as usual, and will have Mr. Price as his associate in the stand.—
Louisville Courier Journal.

"Dick" Roche is reported to be the owner of a very promising two-year-old in a colt by Candlemas from his old time favorite The Lioness. Roche has a good many Chicago friends who will be pleased if the colt turns out to be a first flight star.

Dr. H. E. Rowell's entire stable has been suspended at Oakland because of the glaring contrast between the last two races run by Imperious. The suspension does not apply to stake engagements.

Rome Respass has sold the colt Judge Tarvin,
3, by Lord Hartington—Eurie, for $6,000 to a New Yorker whose name is not to be divulged for a time for some reason. The colt is to be shipped to Sheepshead Bay Monday.

Betokening the near approach of the regular racing season of 1899, programs of the meetings at Little Rock, Newport and Benning are out and in readiness for the use of horse owners.

A FEW YEARLINGS FOR SALE.

Some of the many courteous men who study
DAILY RACING FORM have sent enough back numbers of the monthlies to make up five more copies of Yearly Racing Form. The book is a glory. Nothing like it in the way of racing literature was ever published before. Within its 3,500 pages are full charts of regular racing from January 1, 1898—No. 3492—to December 31, 1898—No. 10186. That means the full charts of 6,694 races. Yearly Racing Form is luxuriously bound in heavy morocco covers.

It's index runs from January 1, 1897 to December 31, 1898—two years—and is on linen paper with a lettered thumb index.

The first book of this class was built for the editor of DAILY RACING FORM. It served him so well that all the spare sheets of 1898 form were bound into annuals of the same type.
Five are being made up and are for sale at $20 per copy. The few books will be sold on the order of application.

Winner—Ch. f, by Knight of Ellerslie—Lady Minnie.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily. It was a drive for the place. Lady Ellerslie came away nicely the last eighth and finished full of running. Merry Day and Frank Bell tired at the end. They raced each other to pieces the first half. Hobart pulled up lame. It was a smart race and equaled the track record for the distance. Debride was right there and ran a good race.

Scratched—10922 Nellie Prince, 94.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third driving also. Possum was best ridden. That is what won the race for him. Annie Taylor tired at the end. She was made too much use of and generally poorly handled. Was the best. Sadie Levy quit the last eighth. The Planter broke down. The race was always between the first three.

Winner—B. c, by Eolus—Gladia.
Off at first break. Start good. It was a driving finish. Al Fresco went to the front on call but was brought to a hard drive at the end to stall off Forbush, who was closing fast. The latter turned wide into the stretch. This may have cost him the race. Sea Robber went to pieces in the last eighth. Nabob ran well for seven furlongs. Double Dummy was much used early and died away at the end. Lady Disdain's race was a good one. The time was a new track record.
Forbush, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Lady Disdain, show, 4 to 1. Eva Rice, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. c, by Kantaka—Nattot.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving. King Barleycorn came away like a stake celt the last eighth and won as he pleased. Kentucky Colonel was pinched off at the start. He had a lot of early speed, though, and went to the front like a flash. He stopped, too, just as fast after going about three quarters. This celt may dislike a route. Jolly Roger was catching Elmer S. fast at the end. He was cut off twice in the run home, but stood the interference like a gentleman. Simply bad racing luck beat him out of the place. Martin rode King Barleycorn to perfection. Knapp stole a march on the other boys on the far turn and saved ground rounding into the stretch. His mount ran a surprisingly good race.
King Barleycorn, place, 1 to 2. Elmer S. place, 8 to 1; show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. m, by Sir Dixon—Retreat.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a gallop; second, third and fourth driving. It was simply a big gallop for Necedah. She had speed to loan. Alva should have been third. O'Connor stopped riding him in the stretch. Prince of India closed a big gap the last quarter. It was a cheap lot.
Overweights—Russella, 2 pounds; Creedmore L., 2.

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second cleverly. Lucky Monday tiptoed his field. Fleeda was bumped and cut off on the first turn. She closed a big gap and ran a good race. Cherry Bounce II. and Woodranger tired badly in the last quarter. Nannie L. was running fast at the finish. She was slow to begin and had some bad racing luck. Zolo ran an honest race.

Winner—B. h, by Sir Modred—Fedalma.
Start fair. Won easily. In the muddy going Adam Andrew was the best of a bad lot and had no trouble about winning. Cardwell was lucky and well handled. He is a very uncertain old horse. Heritage closed fast in the stretch and ran a fair race. The weather and track were against Bliss Rucker. Schnitz ran well for a half.

Scratched—10991 Roadrunner, 113; 10724 Billy McCloskey, 113; 10888 Una Colorado, 109; 10885 Socialist, 107; 10849 Stan Powers, 107; 10991 Mainbar, 107; 11007 February, 93; 10905 Einstein, 92; 10991 Dick Behan, 113.

Overweights—Durwad, 2 pounds; Heritage, 1.
Adam Andrew, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Cardwell, place, 24 to 1; show, evens. Heritage, show, 7 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by Sobrante, dam by Darebin.
Start good. Won pulling up. Moringa was in a soft spot. Stromo ran a good race and is evidently improved. Benamela ran well and would have done better over a longer course. Sprinting is not his forte. Aluminum and Pat Murphy ran their races. The others do not count though Bueno was formerly a fair performer and might do in poor company presently.

Scratched—(11006) Imperious, 104.
Moringa, place, 2 to 5. Stromo, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5.
